

Chronus Draconum

XXXII Issue 6

June 2014

Greetings unto the populace of SunDragon!

The Merry Month of May began with Coronation. Pageantry abounded as Their Graces Morgan and Livia descended the Atenveldt Thrones and Their Royal Majesties Craven and Elzbieta ascended them. We were overjoyed to see so many of Our populace in attendance. Day two of the event held many special moments. We watched many of Our populace fought in both the Armored Combat and Rapier Tournaments and were pleased to witness two of our fine Bards perform in the Bard of the Sun competition. Congratulations to Lord Gefroi for making the finals and Captail Eirik for becoming the newest Bard of the Sun.

We journeyed to the Barony of Granite Mountain to visit our dear Cousins, Vicar Lutold and Vicaress Elsbeth, and their wonderful populace. Their event Torneo de Belleza was amazing fun. We again witnessed many of our populace fight with honor. Her Excellency was humbled and shocked to be chosen as the Dama de Belleza for next year. Apparently she was using her outside voice much more than usual.

We finished the month by attending Kingdom Collegium. The event provided opportunities to make new friends, renew old friendships, and learn many new things. We would like to thank everyone who organized and taught classes for making the weekend so very enjoyable.

As We begin to move into June, it's time to take stock in what makes us strong as a Barony. Our ability to support one another as a family continues to ensure that SunDragon will grow and prosper well into the future. We also look for opportunities to change what may not be working to strengthen the Barony. To that end, We have decided to postpone RenMan until 2015. We wish to thank everyone who shared in the various discussions at officer's meetings, fighter practices, and other events.

We know that through the hard work of Lady Nastas'ia and the populace, RenMan will be reborn as one of the best events in all of Atenveldt. In RenMan's place, we will hold this year's Baronial A&S Competition. Fabric War has grown so much in the last few years that leaving it combined with the A&S Competition was no longer fair to all the great artisans of Our Barony. Please see the additional event information listed in the Chronus and on-line for further information.

We look forward to a busy summer and hope that many of you will be able to join us as we travel throughout the Kingdom to spread the love and honor that is SunDragon to our family in other Baronies.

Vivat the Dream!

Arts and Sciences Competition

August may be as hot as the inside of a dragon, but there is some relief in sight. August 2nd is the day Sun Dragon will hold a competition for the next Arts and Science Champion (in a lovely air conditioned building!). This barony has some of the finest artisans in the kingdom, and we welcome everyone to compete for this title! Anything from embroidery to armor making is welcome. We will also have a competition for our youth. If you are interested the details for this competition are below:

Adults competing for Arts and Sciences champion must do the following:

Submit a letting declaring their intent to compete to the following: to Their Excellencies of SunDragon, The Minister of Arts and Sciences, and the current Arts and Sciences champion (veno0rayahoo.com) . In this letter they must also include which 4 different kingdom categories they are entering in.

You must enter four different kingdom categories. These can be found here:

<http://arts.atenveldt.org/Documents/KingdomCompetitionJudgingSheets2011>. A SINGLE PAGE of documentation is needed, although more is always appreciated by the judges. Please answer the basic; Who, What, When, Where, Why and How. Pictures of process and documentation are also highly suggested.

Youth (17 and under) must follow these guidelines to compete for Youth Arts and Sciences champion:

Submit a letting declaring their intent to compete to the following people: Their Excellencies of SunDragon, The Minister of Arts and Sciences, and the current Arts and Sciences champion. In this letter they must also include which 3 different kingdom categories they are entering in.

Children/youth need to enter three different kingdom categories. They are suggested to answer the basic question of Who, What, When, Where, Why and How in a ½ page to a single page. A parent may assist a younger child, as long as the majority of the project is the child's work/ideas. As always, safety is a priority with young ones.

Adults AND Youth competing for their respective CATEGORIES must do this:

Note: This is NOT competing for champion

Submit a letter to the current Arts and Sciences champion (veno0ra@yahoo.com) stating which categories they are planning on entering. If you do not let the current champion know what you are entering before the event there will be no judges for you, and there will be no appropriate judging sheets. Please keep this in mind. A page of documentation answering the basic Who, What, Where, When, Why and How is needed. As always, pictures and extra length are greatly appreciated.

A&S DEFENDER-

To compete in the A&S Defender tournament on the following evening, you must enter an item for judging, or be a judge yourself! Please let me know if you would like to be a judge!

The competition will be held on August 2nd.

Please stay tuned for more information on locations and starting times!
