From the Baroness and Baron

Greetings unto the populace of SunDragon!

October is a month of great sorrow and joy. We bid farewell to Our hardworking Court and Guard led by Lord Gabriel and Lady Emma. You have all served with great joy and humility during the first six months of our tenure as Baroness and Baron. It is difficult to see this time come to an end.

We; however, look forward to installing new court and guard to work with Us over the next year. Both of Us have had the honor of serving in this manner at both the Baronial and Kingdom level.

There are few things as rewarding as serving in this way. The friendships that are made are invaluable. The knowledge gained is immense. To understand what goes on “behind the curtain” can be game changing in an enormously positive way.

Reflecting back into the last month, We witnessed great chivalry and prowess displayed by fighters from all over the Kingdom of Atenveldt during Crown Tournament. As difficult as it will be to say good bye to Their Royal Majesties King Craven and Queen Elzbieta, We welcome Their Royal Highnesses Prince Brian and Princess Lia.

We are excited to see what they have in store for the Kingdom and look forward to Their Reign. We will be presenting both a thank you basket to Their Majesties and a largess basket to Their Highnesses at Coronation. Please contact Lady Alisia, Our Prize and Gift Basket Coordinator, if you can contribute largess to this endeavor.

We are also excited to announce this month, that the three central baronies: SunDragon, Atenveldt, and Twin Moons, will be joining together to celebrate the holiday season. Twin Moons will host their Annual Tavern Tournament in the morning and then join with SunDragon and Atenveldt to celebrate Yule/Solstice in the afternoon. We could not be so excited to have the opportunity to spend this time with Our friends and chosen family from all over. Our Steward Representatives are Lady Emelyn Frasier and Lady Sigrid the Generous. If you are interested in helping, please contact them. Remember many hands make light work.

Vivat the Dream!

I would like to start spotlighting the hard working Officers of the fine Barony of SunDragon. If you would like to be included, please forward the answers to the following questions to conaryoxall@yahoo.com. YIS – Venetia Painter

1. What is your full SCA name?
2. How long have you been a part of the SCA?
3. How did you find out about the society?
4. What office due you currently hold and what offices have you held in the past?
5. What is the most rewarding reason you serve as an officer in the barony?

From the Chatelaine

So!?!?!? You want to be a Chatelaine, Champion, Lady/Lord in Waiting, or Guard and you are wondering what you need to do to prepare for Champions and Chatelaine/Steward Tourney weekend in October. Well I have news for you....

First you must declare your intentions. This must be done verbally in front of both their Excellencies and a number of the populace. This is your vocal heraldry requirement and everyone who wishes to be on the Court and Guard at any level must do this. This includes any youth who wish to participate. If you are declaring for Champion or Chatelaine/Steward declare no later than October 19th.

Second you must test your strength. Guard/ Style Champions must participate in one fighting style. Champion is expected to participate in all fighting styles. Lady/Lord in Waiting/Chatelaine/Steward you must fight in one style or be a consort for a fighter. You must be authorized for any and all styles no later than October 19th. Every attempt will be made to include the youth fighting styles along with the Adult Style.

Third you must prove you're sound of mind. All parties declaring must take the dreaded written test. There will be a youth test for those under 14.

The following are required of the Champion and Chatelaine/Steward participants, but any and all are welcome to join in as many as they desire.

Proof of agility and grace. Participants will dance 3 period/period like dances. Do not know how to dance? That is quite alright, for they will be taught/demonstrated at that time.

Proof of knowledge of self. Participants will have a heraldic display at their encampment for the ambiance of the event.

The Following are required of the Chatelaine/Steward Participants only. Again any and all are welcome to join if they so choose.

Proof you have an eye for detail. Participants will make the embroidery piece of a full scale award. Participants must pick up a pattern and the material for this project from the Chatelaine Emma Makeblise. Participants may do so at any time prior to the tournament weekend and complete at home is they so wish. Youth under 14 will be asked to make a hand stitched scale level ribbon (blue ribbon with lace edging)

Proof of Hospitality. Participants must make a dessert on site to be delivered at the beginning of the Pot Luck dinner Saturday evening of the tournament weekend. Youth may have the aid of an adult for such things that the adult may deem dangerous (cutting with a knife, starting/cooking with a propane stove/oven, ect). Also youth may make dessert prior to the tournament weekend.

Parents, if you have a youth who wishes to be a Lady in Waiting/Page/Guard please let us know. We would like to set them up with a mentor to guide them in this learning endeavor. It has been noticed that with a mentor the child often listens, retains, and learns more than with the parent. This does not mean that the Mentor is a baby sitter or is responsible for your Child. That is still your responsibility.

Friends and Family, if you would like to mentor a child in their endeavor to become a Lady in Waiting/Page/Guard please let us know so that we can match the best mentor for each child.

Questions? Please contact Lady Emma Makeblise via Facebook, e-mail sjackskeller@gmail.com, or via text/phone at 623-332-1216 (please no calls prior to 8 am and after 9 pm)
