From the Baroness and Baron

Greetings to our chosen family of SunDragon!

It is difficult to believe that We are entering Our sixth month as Baroness and Baron of these fine lands. So much has happened since We stepped up and yet with your help We hope to accomplish so much more.

With your help We found a new home for Fighter Practice, hosted many successful events, and have watched the Barony grow and flourish.

Of course during this time there have been moments of sorrow.

We have seen friends and SunDragon family cross over the Rainbow Bridge. It is important to recognize that even as important as it is to focus on the future, to do so without reflecting on the past is a mistake. Too often we fail to seize an opportunity to talk with those that came before us and learn about the history of SunDragon, the Kingdom of Atenveldt, and the Society itself. We encourage all to look for those precious moments. We believe you will find these moments greatly enrich your participation.

As We move into the next six months, We hope that with your assistance the Barony will continue to grow and prosper. Without the Populace, We could not accomplish anything.

It's our hardworking friends and family that accomplish great deeds by stepping forward to take on officer positions, steward Baronial events, and submit bids for Kingdom events. It is YOU that make SunDragon successful and for this We cannot be more thankful.

We hope that many of the populace will be able to make the journey to Champions in October. Not only can We celebrate what you have achieved, but We can continue to strengthen our relationship with Our friends from the Barony of Atenveldt.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Baronial Officer Spotlight

Meet m’Lady Venetia Painter (Conar Yoxall). She’s your new Baronial Chronicler. She is taking over the office from Lady Venora as her warrant comes to an end. Conar is a Senior in High School and is preparing to enter college to pursue a degree in Graphic Design. She’s excited to take on her first officer position and felt that this would be a good fit since it fits in with what her real life goals are.

Venetia has been a member of the SCA for 6 years although she’s been playing since the day she was born. She hopes that everyone enjoys the new format for the Chronus. Venetia wants to continue to work to make it a source of knowledge and useful information for everyone in the Barony. If you have anything you would like to see included please contact her at conaryoxall@yahoo.com.

From the Chatelaine

So!?!?!? You want to be a Chatelaine, Champion, Lady/Lord in Waiting, or Guard and you are wondering what you need to do to prepare for Champions and Chatelaine/Steward Tourney weekend in October. Well I have news for you....

First you must declare your intentions. This must be done verbally in front of both their Excellencies and a number of the populace. This is your vocal heraldry requirement and everyone who wishes to be on the Court and Guard at any level must do this. This includes any youth who wish to participate. If you are declaring for Champion or Chatelaine/Steward declare no later than October 19th.

Second you must test your strength. Guard/ Style Champions must participate in one fighting style. Champion is expected to participate in all fighting styles. Lady/Lord in Waiting/Chatelaine/Steward you must fight in one style or be a consort for a fighter. You must be authorized for any and all styles no later than October 19th. Every attempt will be made to include the youth fighting styles along with the Adult Style.

Third you must prove you're sound of mind. All parties declaring must take the dreaded written test. There will be a youth test for those under 14.

The following are required of the Champion and Chatelaine/Steward participants, but any and all are welcome to join in as many as they desire.

Proof of agility and grace. Participants will dance 3 period/period like dances. Do not know how to dance? That is quite alright, for they will be taught/demonstrated at that time.

Proof of knowledge of self. Participants will have a heraldic display at their encampment for the ambiance of the event.

The Following are required of the Chatelaine/Steward Participants only. Again any and all are welcome to join if they so choose.

Proof you have an eye for detail. Participants will make the embroidery piece of a full scale award. Participants must pick up a pattern and the material for this project from the Chatelaine Emma Makeblise. Participants may do so at any time prior to the tournament weekend and complete at home is they so wish. Youth under 14 will be asked to make a hand stitched scale level ribbon (blue ribbon with lace edging)

Proof of Hospitality. Participants must make a dessert on site to be delivered at the beginning of the Pot Luck dinner Saturday evening of the tournament weekend. Youth may have the aid of an adult for such things that the adult may deem dangerous (cutting with a knife, starting/cooking with a propane stove/oven, ect). Also youth may make dessert prior to the tournament weekend.

Parents, if you have a youth who wishes to be a Lady in Waiting/Page/Guard please let us know. We would like to set them up with a mentor to guide them in this learning endeavor. It has been noticed that with a mentor the child often listens, retains, and learns more than with the parent. This does not mean that the Mentor is a baby sitter or is responsible for your Child. That is still your responsibility.

Friends and Family, if you would like to mentor a child in their endeavor to become a Lady in Waiting/Page/Guard please let us know so that we can match the best mentor for each child.

Questions? Please contact Lady Emma Makeblise via Facebook, e-mail sjackskeller@gmail.com, or via text/phone at 623-332-1216 (please no calls prior to 8 am and after 9 pm)
